

Los Molinos Airén – Verdejo

Don Quixote battled the giants that turned out to be windmills, and that currently compose the most typical image of La Mancha in history books. The giants were baptized with the names of Burleta, Infante and Sardinero. Los Molinos airén – verdejo is the result of a careful selection of the very best grapes. Despite its young character, it exhibits a good structure.

Technical Information

It is mostly harvested at night so that low temperatures below 12°C help to preserve the aromas of this variety. Every stage of cultivation and elaboration is carefully controlled to prevent oxidation. The grapes macerate at low temperature to obtain the variety's maximum expression. Then, fermentation takes place at approximately 14-16°C for up to 12-15 days to draw this variety's maximum aromatic potential.
